

Because Change Starts with Compassion

Imagine a young mother in Papua New Guinea who, for the first time, can send her daughter to school. Picture a refugee in Australia finally feeling safe enough to rebuild their life.

For 25 years, Mercy Works has been turning these stories into reality, not through charity alone, but through partnerships that empower communities to stand strong on their own.

Now, as we mark our 25th anniversary, we invite you to stand with us to celebrate what's been achieved, and to help write the next chapter of impact.

About Mercy Works

Since 2000, Mercy Works, the development arm of the Sisters of Mercy in Australia and Papua New Guinea, has been working alongside vulnerable communities to create lasting change.

We partner with grassroots organisations across Australia and the Asia-Pacific region, helping to foster capacity, dignity, and self-reliance. Our focus is on supporting women and children, and our work spans three key areas:

- Indigenous projects in Australia
- Support for refugees and asylum seekers in Australia
- International development in Timor-Leste, Papua New Guinea, and the Philippines

Every project is grounded in our core values: mutuality, integrity, compassion, and justice.

Our Audience

The event will bring together:

- Philanthropic individuals and families
- Corporate and community leaders
- Mercy Works donors and long-time supporters
- Alumni and partners of Mercy Works programs (Australian and international)
- Local government and NGO representatives
- Media and influencers in the social impact sector
- Mercy school communities from across Australia
